

Table of Contents

TERMS AND CONDITIONS	3
PREFACE.....	4
INTRODUCTION.....	5
THE NEED FOR THIS STUDY	5
THE PURPOSE OF THIS STUDY	6
THE LIMITATIONS OF THIS STUDY	6
CHAPTER ONE	7
GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS OF INTERPRETATION	7
DEFINING THE TERMS	7
THE GOAL OF INTERPRETATION	8
THE METHODS OF INTERPRETATION	9
A. The Grammatical-Historical Method	9
1. The Bible Is Inspired by God	10
2. The Bible Is Written by Men	11
a. Understanding Grammar	12
b. Understanding the Culture.....	14
c. Understanding the Kinds of Literature	16
d. Understanding Figures of Speech	17
B. Other Methods of Interpretations	19
1. Allegorical Method	19
2. Spiritual Method.....	21
3. Tradition Method	21
4. Rationalistic Method	21
5. Subjective Method	22
6. Devotional Method	22
CHAPTER TWO	23
SPECIFIC CONSIDERATIONS OF INTERPRETATION.....	23
THE HERMENEUTICS OF TYPOLOGY	23
A. Defining its Usage	23
B. Determining guidelines for its usage	25
THE HERMENEUTICS OF PROPHECY	26
A. The Different Millennial Views	27
B. The Different Interpretive Principles	28
THE HERMENEUTICS ASSOCIATED WITH THE USE OF THE OT IN THE NT	30
A. Defining the problem	30
B. Solving the Problem	31
1. One meaning for a text	32
2. One meaning but two referents	32
3. Multiple meanings.....	32
4. One meaning intended but additional meaning discovered	33
5. One meaning but an additional typological significance	33
CHAPTER THREE	35
PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS OF INTERPRETATION.....	35
THE TEACHING SYLLABUS.....	36
BIBLIOGRAPHY	76